

One Thousand Tales

BY DILIP KUMAR

Why, one thousand tales ?

Couples and families choose One thousand tales to showcase how much beauty exists in this real life and its celebrations. To capture honest moments aesthetically in their most authentic form.

Our couples desire photographs and films that will stand the test of time capturing a myriad of emotions, cultures, and lifestyles as stories. If you think real-life stories are valuable memories that need to be preserved, you have come to the right place.

We capture your love stories through real and meaningful moments.

We are One thousand tales.

Stories from our couples

I already saw Dilip's work many years ago and decided right then, that when i get married i want him to be the photographer. Even if it's on the other side of the world. He did come all the way to Finland and did his magic, just amazing work! The way he captures moments and has an eye for those is a beautiful talent. I definitely recommend him to capture the moments of your big day and make it unforgettable.

-Kristiina Borgenstrom, FINLAND

The better half and yours truly wanted a candid recording of our joyous occasion while the oldies in the family wanted something more traditional. It was a corona wedding so the live stream was mandatory. Dilip is a thorough professional who understood our needs and tailored a custom package for us, arrived with his crew before time, understood the key people and situation to capture it well, followed by timely processing and delivery. The equipment and techniques are state of the art, while the human element is a class of its own. We highly recommend Dilip & his team to the classy man and sassy woman who wants to capture their tale as it unfolds for eternity.

-Keerthivasan, CHENNAI

When I wanted my sister's wedding to be photographed I was looking for someone who could capture the unique innocent - mischievous moments. Me being a wedding photographer I was very clear about hiring Dilip / One Thousand Tales for our big day. The pictures we got delivered showed how seriously Dilip and the team valued every little moment. I'd recommend OTT/Dilip to anyone who wants unfiltered real - emotions to be captured out of their big day!!

-Hari, GUNASEELAM

One Thousand Tales, the name itself is straightforward in what Dilip Kumar is trying to photo-document. Fond Memorable tales behind every photograph he captures candidly, a single photo withholds more than one story. The entire wedding process is documented in a way it doesn't look staged. with a humble approach towards the bride&groom and his way of being non-intrusive in order to get your memorable day more nostalgic when you revisit the photographs, you'll feel blessed that you had him to capture your best moments...Coz me and my family did feel it.

-Saravanan, CHENNAI

"We believe your wedding is a once-in-a-lifetime story, and our mission is to quietly preserve those unscripted, intimate moments that define your day. This package is designed so you can fully immerse yourselves in every laugh, glance, and ritual, while we capture your story with care. If you envision a more expansive coverage, we also offer bespoke packages, tailored to your exact vision. Whether that means adding more events or a larger team. We'd love to discuss how we can craft the perfect experience for you."

(Prices are excluding travel and accommodation*)

To confirm the booking, an advance deposit of 50% is required. The remaining amount is due a week from the last event of the wedding, post which the colour-correction/editing processes will commence.
